Dear Damien

Thank you for your support over the last financial year. Your generosity has helped us to carry out life-changing work in 59 countries around the world.

The enclosed Annual Tax Receipt shows your tax-deductible gifts processed by us between 1 July 2009 and 30 June 2010. Keep it safe, as you can use it to support your claim for a tax deduction on your next tax return.

To help us keep our records up to date, we'd appreciate it if you could confirm that damien@bluepie.com.au is your current email address. If this is incorrect, please visit worldvision.com.au/myworldvision to update your details.

Did you know that you can now choose to receive next year's annual tax receipt online? Sign up via Supporter Central by visiting worldvision.com.au/etax. Our website also makes it easy for you to connect with our work, update your contact information, share your views and discover what life is really like for the children and communities you help to support.

Once again, I'd like to thank you on behalf of all the children and communities whose lives you are helping to transform. Your ongoing support is deeply appreciated.

Yours sincerely

Tim Costello
World Vision Australia Chief Executive

World Vision wins Transparency Award

World Vision Australia was recently announced winner of the PricewaterhouseCoopers 2009 Transparency Awards, which judge the quality and transparency of reporting in the not-for-profit sector.

As a values-based organisation, World Vision is committed to demonstrating that our operations, policies, governance structures and decision-making processes are consistent with the values we advocate. We are thrilled that this commitment has been officially recognised.

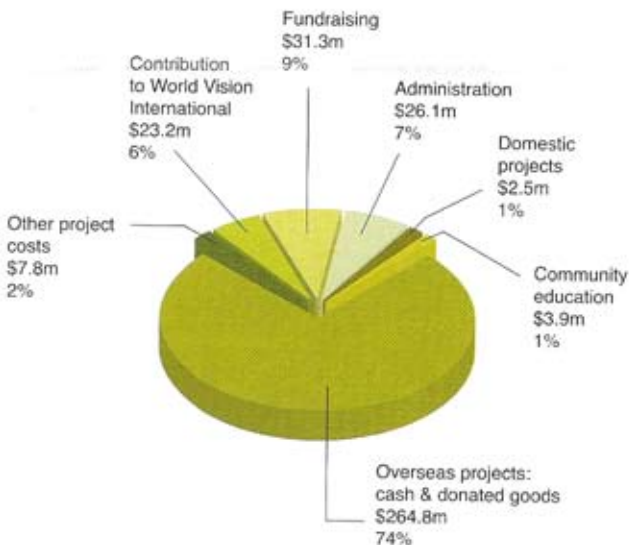

World Vision's annual reports are about more than "facts and figures". They are reflective of our efforts to be transparent about the challenges and complexities involved in effective development and humanitarian work.
