Biography
December's Shadow are a hard hitting 5 piece Hardcore / Thrash / Rock band hailing from Orlando, Florida signed to Blue Pie Records Australia. They play it loud and hard. As the band says "We had only one thing in mind when we formed in the Winter of 07," Says front man Joey Cusmano , "To redefine the face of Rock and roll music".

And when it comes to the music they prove their point. Incorporating the fast no holds barred philosophy of heavy hitting music and electrifying shows, December's Shadow follows the footsteps of the American hardcore punk revolution of the late 70's, presenting the world with a fresh brand of sincerity.

Custom header representing the band

December's Shadow are a hard hitting 5 piece hardcore thrash metal band from Orlando, Florida USA. They are focussed on a single mission to revolutionize the world of rock music. They play it loud and hard. As the band says "We had only one thing in mind when we formed in the Winter of 07," Says front man Joey Cusmano and that was to redefine the face of Rock and roll music.

When it comes to their own brand of metal music they prove their point. Incorporating the fast no holds barred philosophy of heavy hard hitting music and electrifying shows. December's Shadow follows the footsteps of the American hardcore punk revolution of the late 70's, presenting the world with a fresh brand of sincerity and a non stop roar of a Leopard Tank at full throttle driving through a building at full speed.

In September 2009 the band signed to the leading indie power house " Blue Pie " for a global distribution, recording and publishing agreement. The 1st release on their new label is their new EP "The Hands Of Fate". The Hands of Fate begins with an ethereal instrumental intro within which guitarist Sean Nothstine weaves an alluring solo. The track serves to disarm the listener, making them easy prey as Joey Cusmano's strangled vocals burst forth to announce the beginning of "Dark Mind". His gravelly shouts are accompanied by melodic leads from Nothstine and main man Richard Potts as drummer Jason Czarnowski provides a cacophony of beats. The albums hardcorish breakdowns and infectious chorus rock that feature clean vocals, both staples of contemporary extreme music, work to define December's Shadow in their own sound wave that prove to be both innovative and original. The atmospheric harmonies and noodling solos validate their talent and skill as musicians and make the EP a stand out body of work. The militaristic riffs and beats, as well as the barked vocals and gang shouts on the track "The Voice of Dissent" exhibits the band's society-be-damned punk influences.

December's Shadow are Richard Potts, Joey Cusmano, Paul Simoneau, Jason Czarnowski and Sean Nothstine. They are 5 metal brothers on a musical crusade to take their sound to the four corners of the globe. Take Led Zeppelin and the obvious influence of Metallica , ad Scar Symmetry and Alexisonfire and the thrash hard driving beats and blend this with the hard hitting sound of what is now known throughout Florida as "December's Shadow" and you have one of the freshest and brightest new talents to emerge from the US metal scenes in the past decade. Cusmano's barked vocals integrated with the thunder and roar of his band mates holding on to the tail of an F16 at full throttle gives any reader the visualisation of what a "December's Shadow" concert is all about. If there were 5 guys on the planet that could hold an F16 at full throttle on the ground while playing melodious metal to the roar of its jet engines then it would have to be "December's Shadow"

Although December's Shadow still has some work to do before truly revolutionizing the genre, their debut EP serves to establish the band as legitimate contributors to explosion of Thrash and Hard Core Metal styles that are emerging globally today. Under the direction of Blue Pie and working with their global network concerts and tours will be announced through out 2010 and 2011. The bands debut release is out now on Blue Pie for the world and available at all leading digital retailers on the planet. REVIEWS:

"December's Shadow- The Hands of Fate - a nice mix of the fast and furious with melodic choir boy antics, but they look like such "nice" boys - Oh, sweet ecstasy as they thrash-metal my world away into the next decade. Great production - this is a superb album get it while it's hot..."
- Starr Tucker New York Waste

"December's Shadow is one of the most intense live performances I have ever seen. These guys take it to the next level. We look forward to working with them in the future."
- Mike Duvall Music Source

"December's Shadow debut EP serves to establish the band as legitimate contributors to the modern thrash style. The Hands of Fate will certainly appeal to fans of bands like Scar Symmetry and Alexisonfire"
- Dave Knoch Lexington Heavy Metal Examiner
