

LOVE RIDE 25

“ While the Love Ride has come to be associated with celebrities and huge crowds, it has always been, first and foremost, a charity event. The sound track to these events was put together by Todd Smallwood. It was a great pleasure to create artwork for this catalogue. ”

About

Love ride began in 1981 and at that time no one ever expected it would later become the largest single day motorcycle charity event in the world. Since then it has changed lives worldwide and created priceless memories for so many people including many famous faces. Originally starting off as a Biker's Carnival the charity event kept growing until eventually the creator Oliver Shokouh reconceptualized the fund raiser to incorporate the thrill of riding to raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

The event has been attended by Willie G. Davidson Vice President of Harley-Davidson and his family, Robby Krieger guitarist of The Doors, ZZ Top, Foo Fighters, Billy Idol, Bruce Springsteen, Peter Fonda, Malcolm Forbes, Ann-Margret, Eric Burdon of The Animals, the cast of Sons of Anarchy, and Jay Leno as the Grand Marshall of the event. These are just SOME of the amazing people involved!

An estimated 25,000 motorcyclists took part in Love Ride 25 and it was held in conjunction with California Bike Week. The event started in Glendale before seemingly endless bikes revved through the Los Angeles freeway for 20 miles before arriving at the L.A. Country Fairplex. During the afternoon ZZ Top, Foo Fighters and The Tubes performed live for the massive crowd that flooded the race track infield. Later on, Grand Marshall Jay Leno took the stage to welcome special guests including Peter Fonda and Robert Patrick and spent a few minutes joking with U.S. Service Personnel serving in Iraq who were watching the show live via satellite link. The ride had beat everyone's expectations and raised millions for local charities all the while advancing the Harley-Davidson brand core values!
