Marvel consists of the three super heroes Vocalo, Animalizer and The Ambassador. From their headquarters, located in Brooklyn, NYC, they struggle hard to put an end to organized crime and the evil organization SACO led by Dr Spats.

Behind this power trio we find three young guys from Linköping, Sweden; John Steen, Ulrik Bostedt and Tony Samuelsson who founded the band Marvel during their high school exchange year in Colorado, USA., 2002.

After three celebrated vinyl singles ("Marvellous", 2002; "Heroine Tracks", 2003; "Bedlam At The Embassy", 2004) MARVEL released their album Five Smell City early summer 2005 on Blue Pie Productions. Following up on the kind reviews they released their CD EP "Unleashed" in February 2006.

"Five Smell City" shows off the high energy rock 'n' roll that has already become Marvel's trademark. Guided by bands such as Kiss and The Stooges, this young bunch of untamed riff masters with a genuine feel for the groove have already managed to manifest their world domination program. Marvel carelessly avoids all rock clichés known to man so you won't find any songs about cars, beer and babes.

Instead you'll get to know super heroes with broken hearts, a weather goddess and how small town madness influences the success of a young hungry rock band stuck in a city of five smells. And of course a song about a Swedish tennis star that has had problems finding a decent occupation since he put his racket to rest.

On "UNLEASHED" Marvel have devoted themselves to render six brilliant yet wildly diverse songs by other artists (aka covers) into their trademark style of rock 'n roll.

Since then the band has turned turned to guru Papa Bear at HOMBRE Productions Inc. for managment, spiritual guidance and Tattoo Powers and Original Outlaw Advertising. The rest my friends is history.

With a killer new single already making its way accross the airwaves Marvel look set to take on the world!

"This Should be impossible to resist for anyone that has ever fallen in love with whats called Rock & Roll"
Johan Kronquist, Corren.

"Both Veterans... as well as younger promising kids won't fail to be inspired by MARVEL"
Marcus Matsson, Folkbladet

What they say...

"The songs reek of Glam rock, Paul Stanley poses, stadium theatrics and perhaps just a dash of MC5's grit. Ready yourself for guitar licks, cowbells, shakers, crash symbols and ooh yeah babies! Fans of Brandt Bjork and Urge Overkill will probably dig the sound ... Oh my goodness!!!"
