

Oksana Milles (Real name Oksana Lozhnikova) is a 29-year-old Russian-born singer on the rise whose fresh, unique brand of contemporary pop is gaining a lot of attention in the music scene.

Originally from the city of Belyov, Oksana later chose to move to Moscow (where she currently resides) in order to fulfill her dreams of being a singer. Thanks to a position in a travel agency, she took a trip to Barcelona in 2009, where she met French electronica producer Minuit De Lacroix and songwriter Stanislav Kucher. The two of them have helped to give rise to much of the songs on Oksana's upcoming debut release.

2014 sees Oksana continuing to prepare for the release of her exciting first full-length album, which will include her original songs placed alongside a selection of covers. A taste of her upcoming material came last year in the form of a two-track EP called "In Spite Of", containing the infectious singles "Blush" and "I Close My Eyes".

Speaking about her goals with music, Oksana says, "Music is my life. I sing always, I sing everywhere. I want to give to people them positivity, a smile, to help them to rejoice and to become stronger."

Oksana Milles has now formed a partnership with the Blue Pie Productions team and is signed to one of the world's leading independent labels, Blue Pie Records - her music will be digitally-distributed to fans, allowing her to further establish herself as an artist all around the world.
