

Shake Digga is one of the few genuine artists out there who isn't afraid to tell it like it is through his music. Hailing from the inner city streets of Sydney and keeping Hip Hop real and true to his heart at all times, Shake has passion in his voice and holds a personal message which he is determined to spread. He believes that one can either step up or can lay down and die. Shake is one who continually steps up to the plate and never says die.

Shake Digga describes himself as 'Super Chronic-Electronic-Hip Hop-Funk-Psychedelic,' and he is constantly searching the globe for the unknown sound. Since receiving an inspirational message captured through reversed music recordings warning Shake that "The moment of truth will come," he has set upon a journey that aims to break down the walls of music genres and bring back the purity in sound. Joined on stage by Ruby Slippers, the "Shake Digga Show" packs a long lasting punch that both bleeds diversity and bruises the imagination, leaving you with a few toys in the attic!

REVIEW

"Love this guy, first time I've actually started to continuously listen to any hip hop coming out of Australia, as I grew up in America I've always thought it couldn't compare but Shake Digga brings a whole new feel to Australian music, one that I love and respect. His sound is one that is going to bring hip hop back to 1 on the charts."
