Celebrating the Life of Teddy Kalanda Harrison: A Legacy Beyond the Stage

A year after his passing, we honor Teddy Kalanda Harrison, founding member of Them Mushrooms, whose music transcends generations. He championed Benga and coastal rhythms, creating the cultural anthem "Jambo Bwana," which carried East Africa's spirit worldwide. As his health declined, he returned to the stage for a moving final performance, showing grace and devotion. Watch the YouTube video below as John Katana recounts how Teddy composed "Jambo Bwana," a vacationing record executive discovered it & it was recorded in one take.

Blue Pie Records Hits 500K Global Listeners, Thanks to Anthony Milton's Stellar Radio Promotions!

Blue Pie Records USA and The Blue Pie Radio Show have surpassed 500,000 global listeners this year, marking a major milestone for the label. This feat owes much to the dedication of Anthony Milton, Radio and Playlist Manager at Ordior, who has led radio promotions, managed content workflows, and coordinated strategic outreach across platforms. His unwavering commitment with the Blue Pie team continues to drive momentum and expand our worldwide impact. Click the icon below to know more about Blue Pie Radio & request a song.

Swanee Hits No.1 on the Australian Charts with "Believe" Album

Australian rock legend Swanee reached No. 1 on the ARIA Blues & Roots Albums Chart with "Believe," a stirring collection of duets and heartfelt collaborations showcasing his enduring vocal power and musical legacy. Featuring guest vocals from Jimmy and Alan Barnes, the release also climbed several physical-format charts and was issued exclusively on CD and vinyl while deliberately skipping mainstream digital streaming platforms. The classic track 'Brother of Mine' is available to stream now on Spotify and Apple Music, so listen to this remarkable song for an inspiring experience.

Beyond AC/DC: Rock Legend Dave Evans' Historic Journey, Shared by BPR AI Avatar Ethan Cross

Dave Evans, the founding singer of AC/DC, ignited the band's legacy with their first single in 1973 before leading Rabbit, a high-octane rock force signed to CBS. Today, Evans tours globally, rocking festivals across Europe and South America while building a powerful digital presence with millions of streams and hundreds of thousands of fans. Supported by Blue Pie Records and partners, his influence proves rock never dies, it only gets louder. Celebrate his journey and watch the full tribute video now on YouTube.

Behind the Music: The Outsider Reimagines Petula Clark's "Downtown"

"Downtown," Petula Clark's famous 1964 classic, found new life after DJ Central's The Outsider remixed it for New York City's post-9/11 cultural revival campaign. In a behind-the-music feature, the legendary Petula Clark fondly recalls its origin with Tony Hatch, who truly crafted her signature sound, while The Outsider shares his bold Neo-Mod vision blending past and present. This powerful story celebrates timeless songwriting, artistic reinvention, and the enduring power of music to connect generations. Watch this fascinating full feature now on YouTube.
